

*Monument Dedication
Honoring
The 281st Assault Helicopter Company,
The First U.S. Army Special Operations
Helicopter Company*

*The Airborne and Special Operations Museum
Fayetteville, NC
October 17, 2009*

*Master of Ceremonies:
Jim Torbert - President
281st AHC Association*

Program

Introduction Jim Torbert

Welcome to Fayetteville Mayor Anthony Chavonne

Posting of the Colors HHC, USASOC

Pledge of Allegiance Jim Torbert

Invocation Norm Kaufman, Chaplain,
281st AHC Association

Opening Remarks..... Jack Mayhew,
Colonel U.S. Army (Ret.)

The Monument Ken Smith, Vice President
281st AHC Association

Guest Speakers:

- CSM D.J. Taylor, U.S. Army Special Forces (Ret.)
- Thomas A. Ross, Former Major,
U.S. Army Special Forces
- Dr. Karen Heintz-Forch, Honorary Member
281st AHC Association

Closing Remarks Ken Smith

Retire the Colors

A Private Event for Members of the 281st AHC Association and Invited Guests Will Be Held in the Museum Lobby From 6:30 to 7:30 P.M. The Museum Exhibits Are Then Available for Viewing.

The 281st AHC Association Officers:

Jim Torbert President
Ken Smith Vice President
Jeff Murray Secretary
Fred Beck Treasurer
Ed Haas Senior Member at Large
Frank Becker Junior Member at Large
Frank Little Immediate Past President

Monument Dedication Committee:

Jim Baker
Walt Pikul
Bain Black
Vic Rose

Program Designed by Joan Pace Baker